Note:

1. MQA will recognize ABE qualifications for learners who follow the Maldives National Qualifications Framework (MNQF) entry criteria as mentioned above.
2. With the decision made by Ofqual, all UK Awarding Organisations has transitioned new qualifications from the QCF Framework to the RQF Framework by 31st December 2017 and the QCF Framework no longer exists.
3. December 2017 was the last examination date, learners could be assessed for any QCF qualifications and all learners are now transitioned to RQF. ABE has mapped old QCF Units to new RQF so any learner who is part way through a QCF Diploma will now continue and complete their Diploma on RQF. ABE has clear options for learners about what Units and how many they now need to do to complete their qualification.
4. If a learner has previously completed a full ABE QCF Diploma at one particular Level, they will then be able to progress onto the next Level on RQF. For example a learner holding a completed Level 4 Diploma on QCF can now move onto a Level 5 Diploma on RQF.
